WWNC Rated As One Of Best Stations In The U.S.

Shepherd Assured That Station Will Be Given Immediate Relief

"I found that WWNC is now noted across the country as having a station that is equal to the best in the nation and it can compete favorably with other stations in various parts of the country. The Federal Radio Commission says that the station is operated by Mr. O. Shepherd, WWNC director, and after asking the station and the commission last week, reception conditions in Western North Carolina are excellent. The commission says that "WWNC stands out as the one station in the state that has the finest signal. The station is operated by Mr. O. Shepherd, WWNC director, and after asking the station and the commission last week, reception conditions in Western North Carolina are excellent. The commission says that "WWNC stands out as the one station in the state that has the finest signal."

PAUL CRAIG WINS N. C. AUDITION OF KENT FOUNDATION

Asheville has produced another winner in the Art of North Carolina Audition of the American Legion. William Craig, Mr. Craig sang in the State over WBT last Tuesday evening and the announcement was made that he was selected by a large majority. Miss Dorothy Blankenship represented Asheville for the women's section. Mr. Craig will return to Nashville-Tenn., to participate in the district auditions in November, and he has announced that he will go to New York City to enter the national finals for the first place in the music competition offered by the Art of North Carolina Audition of the American Legion. This is the second Asheville boy to be named as a winner, the first being Benjamin Blankenship, who won the first place in the national finals two years ago and is now in New York City.

LEGION'S WWNC PLAY ON NOV. 11

A Day In The Army Will Be Kiffin Rockwell

Post Offering

One of the many features of the day will be the Kiffin Rockwell Post of the American Legion will be a visit to the training camp of the 2017th Engineers under the direction of G. O. Shepherd, manager of the station, and a number of the Legionnaires will make the trip with the post officers. The program will consist of a day in the army camp, which is familiar to all men who served during the World War I, from 1917-1918. It will open with a call and roll call and the bugle, the band playing the roll call, followed by the retreat and the campfire. The day will conclude with a dinner and dance at the American Legion post.

Wolfe's Novel-Creates Interest At U. N. C.

(Special To The Citizen)"